"I am very excited about bringing to Indiana a facility head with such depth of experience that makes him especially suited to manage this dual gender juvenile facility."

J. David Donahue.

Commissioner of the Indiana Department of Corrections

Indianapolis, Indiana (August 17, 2007) - The Indiana Department of Correction announced that, effective August 13, 2007, Mr. Robert Rivenburg assumed the role of Superintendent at Indianapolis Juvenile Facility.

Mr. Rivenburg comes to the Indiana Department of Correction from the State of Kansas, where he served as Superintendent of a 152-bed medium/maximum security juvenile facility since November 2003. He has proven himself a skillful correctional professional throughout his Correctional career in Kansas and, prior to that, in Texas.

Mr. Rivenburg holds a B.A. Degree in Criminal Justice from St. Mary's College in Kansas, and an Associates Degree in Liberal Arts from State University of New York.

Throughout his career in criminal justice, Rivenburg attained special training from the Department of Justice and Texas State Corrections on drug offender education, officer safety (Train the Trainers), cognitive intervention, executive development, and correctional management.

"I am very excited about bringing to Indiana a facility head with such depth of experience that makes him especially suited to manage this dual gender juvenile facility", said J. David Donahue, Commissioner of the Department of Correction.

Mr. Rivenburg replaces Steve McCauley, a longstanding employee of the Department of Correction, who will be assisting the Department as a Program Director for Jail Inspection Services Division.
